AUTHOR AGREEMENT

This Agreement is dated as of the date set forth below and is provided by

_____ (the "Author") to the Institute for Supply Management, Inc. TM ("ISM") in connection with the acceptance of Author's article to ISM entitled

_____ (the "Work") for electronic publication in The Proceedings for the North American Research Symposium on Purchasing and Supply Chain Management ("Collective Work"). With the understanding and agreement that ISM will rely on this Agreement, the Author represents, warrants and agrees as follows:

Ownership of Work. The Collective Work will be and shall remain the property of ISM, its successors and assigns, free from any liens, claims, encumbrances or right of termination by Author or anyone else. The ownership of the individual Author's Work remains with the Author see the rights set forth in the next paragraph. The rights of ISM include all copyrights in the Collective Work and similar rights, including but not limited to the right to publish individual articles in the Collective Work in print and electronic media, whether now known or hereafter created, the right to use, reproduce, copy, distribute, display, edit, delete, add to, and otherwise change the individual Work in the Collective Work. ISM will have the exclusive right to register the copyright in the Collective Work in its name throughout the world, and to secure any renewals and extensions of such copyrights. The copyright in the Collective Work shall be owned solely, completely and exclusively by ISM.

Grant of Rights to Author. ISM hereby grants to Author the non-exclusive right to his/her individual Work, to create derivative works from the Work and the non-exclusive right to republish the Work.

Representations and Warranties/Indemnity. Author represents and warrants that (a) the Work will be original with the Author (except for copyrighted materials of others for which Author has obtained permissions as described below) and no part of it will have been previously published, except such part thereof as has been taken from the public domain, (b) Author has the right to enter into and perform this Agreement without violating any other contractual obligations, (c) the Work, and its use pursuant to this Agreement, will not infringe upon or violate the copyrights, right of privacy or publicity, any contract right or any other rights of any person or entity, (d) the Work will contain no matter that is defamatory or otherwise in violation of law, and (e) use of the Work by ISM as contemplated by this Agreement will not create any payment obligation by ISM to any party, including Author, unless specific arrangements have been agreed upon between ISM and Author. Author hereby indemnifies and agrees to defend and hold harmless ISM, its successors, assigns and parent and affiliated entities, its licensees, and all others authorized by ISM to exercise ISM's rights hereunder (the "Indemnities"), from and against any and all liability, loss, damage, cost, claims, suits and expense (including all reasonable attorneys' fees) imposed on, incurred by, or asserted against any Indemnity and relating to or arising out of the breach or claim of breach of any the foregoing representations and warranties.

Standards of Publication/Credit. Author acknowledges and agrees that the ultimate suitability of the Work for publication shall be finally determined by ISM in its own best judgment, and ISM will have no obligation to publish the Work if ISM determines, in its sole discretion, that it is unsuitable for publication. In the event that ISM publishes the Work, however, Author will receive a full and prominent credit. ISM has the right to edit and amend the Work as it deems appropriate. ISM makes no representation, express or implied, that the Work will be published or what its circulation might be if it is published.

Consents and Releases/Co-Authors. Should the Work contain any copyrighted or otherwise proprietary materials of others or should the work be prepared by co-author(s) in addition to the Author, Author is responsible to obtain written permissions from all such other proprietors and co-authors and include the permissions with materials submitted to ISM. Author is responsible for obtaining appropriate releases from persons appearing in photographs and for fully identifying all photographs.

Governing Law. This Agreement shall be governed by the laws of the State of Arizona, except for its laws relating to conflict of laws.

No Oral Modifications. This Agreement may not be released, discharged or modified other than in accordance with its terms, except by a writing signed by ISM.
