

Ms. Tracy Joshua

Tracy Joshua is Senior Director, Corporate Goods & Services Sourcing. Tracy is responsible for indirect spend categories, including Travel Services, Meeting Management, Leased Workers, Employee Services, Legal Services, Learning & Development, and Management Consulting among other areas. She received a Bachelor's degree in Supply Chain Management, a Master's degree in Education, Organizational Development and Labor Relations, both from Michigan State University, and a second Master's degree in Industrial Engineering from Georgia Tech University. Tracy joins Bristol-Myers Squibb from her role as Department Head for Global Business & Strategy at Ford Motor Company. She also previously held the role as Global Purchasing Manager with Ford. Her prior work background also includes assignments as Production Control & Logistics Manager, Lean Manufacturing Manager, & International Purchasing Manager within General Motors Corporation. She is the founder of a Business Education partnership with public schools, small businesses and Fortune 500 companies with a mission of raising student academic achievement.