

Joseph C. Black, Jr.

Joseph Black is Chief Procurement Officer for Aetna, Inc., one of the nation's leading diversified health care benefits companies. In this position, he leads the company's procure-to-pay activities enterprise-wide, impacting over $4 billion in company expense. His responsibilities include Supply Management, Accounts Payable, Meeting Management, Travel, Supplier Diversity, and Expense Policy. During his 19-year tenure at Aetna, Mr. Black held various leadership roles within Procurement and Real Estate. Mr. Black holds a Bachelors of Science degree from Cornell University and an MBA from the University of Connecticut. He sits on the board of Meadows Real Estate: a not-for-profit community revitalization organization focused on low-income, subsidized housing; and the board of Church Homes, Inc: a not-for-profit, nonsectarian corporation, which owns or manages retirement communities. He is also a deacon and trustee for the Apostolic Fellowship Church.
