

Carrie Ericson
A.T. Kearney

- Carrie has over 18 years of experience in procurement and supply management
- Carrie has been with A.T. Kearney since 1991 and is currently a Vice President within A.T. Kearney's Procurement and Analytic Solutions Group
- She took a brief break from traditional consulting from 2004 - 2007 to work with Ariba in assisting clients to implement large scale procurement transformation initiatives
- Carrie was recognized as a Pro to Know by Supply & Demand Chain Executive Magazine in 2004 for her innovation in the Spend Management arena. She was a founder of one of the original cross-industry consortium offerings (Leveraged Sourcing Networks) as well as a founder of one of the early auction technology companies (eBreviate)
- Carrie's clients have included Amgen, HP, Disney, Cisco, E*Trade, Ross Stores, Safeway, Mattel, Health Net, etc.
- Carrie has an MBA from The Wharton School, University of Pennsylvania; and a BA (Economics) from, UC Santa Barbara
- Carrie has written and spoken extensively on the topics of Strategic Sourcing, Spend Management and Procurement Transformation in such forums as iSource Magazine, Automotive Sourcing Magazine, Purchasing Magazine, Conference Board, Institute for Supply Management, ProcureCon, Sourcing Interest Group, Optimize Magazine, Supply Chain Management Review
- Carrie currently serves on the Board of the Sourcing Interest Group and the University of San Diego's Supply Chain Management Institute
- Carrie lives in the San Francisco area with her husband and three children