

Mario Munoz

Mr. Munoz is Staff Vice President of Procurement Operations and Accounts Payable for WellPoint, Inc. In this role Mr. Munoz is responsible for developing and implementing strategies for WellPoint's procurement department including policies, compliance, contract management, analytics, procurement technology, procurement card, travel card and procurement processes. Additionally, he is also responsible for cash disbursement activities, and payments to trade and non-trade suppliers.

In addition to his current role, since joining WellPoint in 2003 Mr. Munoz has held multiple leadership roles in procurement including Director of Strategic Sourcing where he managed several categories the general goods and services space and Category Manager where he led strategic sourcing for Information Technology.

Before joining WellPoint, Mr. Munoz was a Manager at Accenture where he led strategic sourcing engagements for Fortune 100 clients in various industries including telecommunications, energy, entertainment, healthcare and pharmaceuticals. Prior to Accenture Mr. Munoz was part of the executive development program at Southern California Edison where he led strategic sourcing engagements and developed and implemented strategies to market products and services in deregulated markets..

Mr. Munoz holds a BS in Accounting from California State University Long Beach and an MBA with specialization in Supply Chain Management from Michigan State University.